Foundation for the Tri-State Community, Inc.
Fund for Gifted Musicians Award
2022

This scholarship was established to help a musically gifted Boyd or Greenup County student in 8th-12th grade pursue special study opportunities to further develop his or her skills beyond regular, private, school-based study. The student applicant should demonstrate both a love of music and musical ability, whether through private or school-based study. This scholarship is for students to study music on a higher level, such as a summer music camp or other special opportunity such as a university-based master class. The scholarship award is contingent upon proof of acceptance into a qualifying program.

Please note this is not a scholarship for college tuition.
